Your annual membership support of AOA will help us continue to:

- Be a leader of private conservation efforts in central and south-central Ohio
- Protect the water quality of our rivers, streams and aquifers through conservation of riparian and greenway corridors, wetlands and watershed recharge areas
- Conserve scenic, natural Hocking Hills lands that complement existing parks and natural areas and enhance ecotourism
- Conduct nature-based education and outdoor activity and outreach programs for youths and adults that feature conserved properties and highlight local lands and ecosystems
- Forge partnerships with numerous compatible and collaborative organizations that greatly compound your donations - protecting more of our valuable land and water resources
- Protect more farmland and working family farms, preserving local food production
- Protect unique natural areas, community forests, Native American sites, scenic viewsheds, and other worthy features of our natural, scenic, archaeological, geologic, historic and cultural heritage

Thank you for your support!

Together we can build a better, healthier and more livable region
